Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

Gospel Reading
Matthew 5:17-37
I have not come to abolish the law and the prophets but to fulfill them.

Families have rules. Without rules, family life would be chaos. As a family, brainstorm a list of rules that you are all called to follow in your home in order for you all to get along together.

Think about rules for play time, rules for eating, rules for how to speak to one another, rules for going out with friends, and so on. Emphasize that families follow rules as a way of showing love and respect for one another.

Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about following the Law. Say: God's Law of love can be thought of as rules that we are to follow in order to show our love and respect for one another. Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 5:17-37.

Talk specifically with one another about how anger is to be dealt with in your family.

Conclude by praying for the grace to overcome anger and to show respect for one another as a family by following God's Law of love.

Prayer before Mass - St. Thomas Aquinas

Almighty and ever-living God, I approach the sacrament of Your only begotten Son Our Lord Jesus Christ. I come sick to the doctor of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy, blind to the radiance of eternal light, and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth.

Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness, wash away my defilement, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. May I receive the bread of angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords, with humble reverence, with purity and faith, repentance and love, and the determined purpose that will help to bring me to salvation.

May I receive the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood, and its reality and power. Kind God, may I receive the Body of Your only begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary, and so be received into His mystical body and numbered among His members.

Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage I now receive Your beloved Son under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see him face to face in glory, who lives and reigns with You forever. Amen.

COME, JOIN US AFTER 8:30 MASS NEXT SUNDAY:

Next Sunday February 22, Catholic Daughters will serve Coffee and Donuts after 8:30 Mass in the Parish Hall. Come and join us as we gather for some good and friendly conversation.

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

DO YOU HAVE A LOVED ONE AT HOME WHO WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

Today's Reflection

The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

Sunday February 15, 2026

Follow the Rules

When I was a boy, my brother being four years older, he and I and our parents heard a reading at Mass that included the word raqa.

Since we had plenty of laughter within us, and since the reading told us one must not say raqa to his brother (since it meant "thou fool") obviously the minute we left church we began to say raqa to each other. With impunity and humor, since we were brothers in the strict sense of the word. It did not last, of course.

This unusual word, raqa, is used in today's Gospel (or at least in the "long version" of the Gospel (and it is long!).

I wonder if that is not the way a person or a people grows up. I mean the progression from an uncomplicated, grinning approach to the commandments, to a more nuanced one, and, if they can hang into true maturity, to an experience of the inside of the commandments.

That progression is one way of looking at the readings for this Sunday.

In the First Reading, the writer speaks in very plain terms, as a father might speak to a son or daughter.

"If you choose,

you can keep the commandments—

they will save you.

If you trust in God, you too shall live."

These words are an echo of the last of the five great opening books in the Jewish testament:

I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse.

Choose life, that you and your descendants may live,

by loving the LORD, your God,

heeding his voice, and holding fast to him. (Deut 30: 19-20)

This is not complicated, not too mysterious and remote for people. Maybe even we boys would have understood. We would have recognized "life and death, good and evil."

According to Paul, the commandments became "a wisdom to those who are mature, ... God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages ... " (Second Reading). Eons later, Jesus came along.

He had grown up. One by one, he took the various laws, in all their externality, and drew out their inside roots. One injunction had been against killing. The inside of that law is: do not ever act out of anger at your brother or sister. Not even the word raqa now should be spoken.

Then, you shall not commit adultery. The inside of that law is, be pure enough to not even look lustfully at another person besides your mate. And divorce: the interior law is to stay faithful and loving within your marriage relationship.

Finally, the matter of oaths. We could talk of these for pages, but here we just realize that people today use warrants, such as, " ... in the name of God, " or "OMG," (which stands for O, my GOD!), or "By God ... " Jesus talks of these simply: you are trying to make up for your weakness by putting almighty power behind your words. Just say yes or no, and mean it.

Be real.

Why does Jesus dig so deep? Because "the Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God" (Second Reading)! The inside of the law is written in Jesus' heart. As you and I grow up, let it be written in us too.
