Gospel Reading
John 6:51-58

Jesus says, "I am the living bread."

Our faith teaches us that when we gather to celebrate Mass, Jesus is present to us. The bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood of Christ. This is what we mean by the word transubstantiation: Jesus makes himself present to all who receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

If there are children in your family who have already celebrated their First Holy Communion, invite them to share their memories of this special day. If there are family photos taken on this occasion, bring them out and share them together. Adults in the family may also share memories or photos that they have of their First Communion. Then read together today's Gospel, John 6:51-58. Reflect together on what Jesus means when he calls himself the "living bread." Recall that every time we receive the Eucharist, Jesus keeps the promise he made in today's Gospel—those who eat his flesh and drink his blood will remain forever connected to him. Perhaps family members can share what it means for them to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Together thank God for this gift of Holy Communion. Pray together the Lord's Prayer or today's Psalm.

Prayer before Mass - Prayer to the Sacred Heart

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus; You know the longings of our hearts, and you desire that we enjoy friendship with you. From your pierced side, you have poured out the well spring of life, for which we thirst. Your heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with you.

We celebrate the abundant gifts you have given this nation, founded on the eslf-evident truths that our Creator has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

We make reparation for the offenses against you and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation.

May our hearts be united to yours, so that our families and communities enjoy please and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired, and the wounds of our land be healed.

May your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign, pointing all people to your infinite love.

O desire of Nations and Center of History, we ask you to bless these United Sates of America.

Who live and reign with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Todays Reflection Corpus Christi (Year A) Sunday June 7, 2026

For the Life of the World

Let us review for a moment what has happened in the special season just gone by. I suppose this is a summary of the summaries! It leads to Sunday's feast, which is a great remembrance of our salvation.

Holy Thursday: we saw Jesus washing the feet of the disciples, cleaning their feet, wiping off the dirt. Then on Good Friday we saw Jesus refuse the way of riches, honor, and pride, instead of following the way of love. He could have avoided the cross, but love said yes to God instead. It was the highest example of real, lasting love we know of. It showed us who God is, in the flesh.

The Sundays after Easter: After his resurrection, Jesus spoke to us about his sacrifice and his having risen from the dead, showing how these are signs of the Father's love for the whole world. Then the Ascension. Jesus was going away, back to the Father. He was to take his love back to the Trinity—where it started—thus completing the circle. Therefore, he left us, and if that were the end of the story we would have only memories.

On Pentecost he sent his Spirit into our hearts. We ourselves, his followers, were to receive that Spirit and become his new and continuing body for the life of the world. There is only one condition: that we let go and allow his Holy Spirit dwell in our lives. Gradually we would sense with Spiritual eyes what The Holy Trinity is all about.

How, exactly, are we to let the Holy Spirit find this dwelling place within us? If we look around at our culture, it seems impossible. A lot of our neighbors have thrown away the idea of a soul altogether and even the notion of a God. Others just dive into the flesh pots, so to speak, and by doing so, deny that there is such a thing in them as a depth where some Holy Spirit could dwell.

But we do have such a depth, all of us and each of us. We just need to let go and learn to be loved by this Spirit of Jesus and of his Abba. Then it will occur to us why the Christ had promised the Holy Spirit and then sent it.

However, one unhandy fact remains. We are flesh and blood creatures, not merely spirits. Would Christ have gone away to heaven, leaving his followers to make their own way without him? No. The sacrament of his Body and Blood is the way we join in the complete life of Christ. Just as the Holy Spirit comes together with our spirit, the sacrament of Christ's body becomes one with our own bodies in a gradual but intimate transformation.

To put it another way, we need Manna if we are to survive (First Reading)! Today's Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ shows this. The great plan of God could get lost unless there were a Manna-like sacrament to draw our bodies and our spirits into Christ's presence.

And so, now the Easter picture is complete. Christ remains in the world for all time. He is spiritually and physically present to the world in us, as often as we accept his body and dwell in his Spirit.

That is the reason for this final feast after Easter.
