Loyola Press Sunday Family Connections

Today's Gospel describes what we can easily imagine as a picnic on the beach. Just as Jesus' miracle at the wedding feast at Cana blesses the love between man and woman celebrated in the sacrament of marriage, Jesus' attentiveness to food and mealtimes raises the possibility that our meal gatherings can be sacred times. In families, the domestic church, our meals together are everyday opportunities to gather and recall Jesus' presence with us. As in the Eucharist, we bring the gifts that God has given us, which have been prepared especially for our Mass, and at our family meals we share gifts that God has given to us and that we have worked together to prepare. This includes the food on the table and also the people who gather around the table. We ask God to bless these gifts and to be present among us in all of our interactions.

Consider a recent family meal: What food was served? Where did the food come from? Who prepared the food? Who served the food? Was mealtime a happy time? Why or why not? Observe that today's Gospel tells about a meal that Jesus shared with his disciples after his Resurrection. Read aloud today's Gospel, John 21:1-14. Reflect on the Gospel reading using the questions above. Talk about ways in which this meal that Jesus shared with his disciples might remind us of the meal we share at the Eucharist. You might choose to plan a special meal together as a family, encouraging each person to participate in the meal preparation. Pray together that Jesus will make his loving presence known in your family life. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

Pope Francis Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen

Homebound Ministry to the Sick

Do you have a loved one at home who would like to receive Holy Communion?

Our parish is blessed to have parishioners who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMC) to parishioners who are homebound. It is most fitting to bring Communion to the sick and/or the homebound from the Mass, but other times may be arranged depending on availability. This ministry, a corporal work of mercy-visiting the sick-reminds those who are homebound that they are an important part of our faith community. Do you know a Sacred Heart Church parishioner who is homebound? Share this bulletin announcement with fellow parishioners whom you know and please invite them to call us. Please call the Parish Office at (503) 842-6647 to make arrangements.

St. Joseph's Church, Cloverdale

St. Joseph's Altar Society would like to expand their membership and in hopes of more women of the parish joining their meetings, and are asking women of the parish if an occasional evening meeting would help them to participate. Please respond to Stjosephcloverdale@gmail.com. St. Joseph's Altar Society meets the second Monday of each month, September through May. All ladies of the parish are invited to join us. Meetings start at 10 a.m.

Holy Land Religious Articles - May 10 & 11

We are having olive wood carvings available to purchase after all masses. The proceeds are to support Christian Catholic families in the Holy Land since it is the major source of income for them there. More than 75 families in Bethlehem Hand carved these items. They are very beautiful and unique items-Nativities, Crucifixes, Rosaries, Statues. The Christian population has dropped from 22% to less than 2% in the past two decades. And this is a way to support them to stay there. Thank you in advance for your support. Issa Jaraysa

Simon Peter

What a scene it must have been.

"Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" If I were him, I couldn't have pinched forth a single word.

Remember, for his part, Peter had simply denied that he even knew who Jesus was. The people around him were members of the persecuting crowd, and he knew how delighted they would have been to tag him as Jesus' friend. So he was afraid.

But before you give Simon Peter a simple excuse, take a look at it.

Have you or I ever felt unable to profess our own beliefs when caught in a threatening situation? I suspect that Peter was the representative of the rest of us, who are weak at heart. Previously he had been the only disciple who blurted out the true identity of Jesus. "You are the Christ, the son of the living God," he had said (Mt 16:16). And then he had protested that his love for Christ would never die.

His slide from believer to denier was a lot more than just a mildly excusable mistake. It seemed like a change of heart. Was it?

In today's Gospel, Jesus does the unexpected: he asks Peter a second time, not if he was sorry for having sinned, not if he felt guilty, but whether he would affirm the real issue: love. Personal relationship is what was at issue.

"Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

notice that Jesus does not simply use the name he himself had given to Peter, but includes the unredeemed one, Simon. Is he letting Simon slide back to his pre-believing status? I do not think so. He seems to me instead to be giving Simon freedom to choose again his basic stance in life, to reaffirm himself as Peter, the Rock.

Not a word is mentioned about the denials, but they form the substance of this scene. Jesus had handed over to him the whole post-Resurrection church, whose job it will be to take care of the beloved ones of God. Feed my lambs, feed my sheep. No one would be able to do this unless his stance were one of love and care, as opposed to just following the rules.

So Simon Peter has affirmed his remarkable faith. That is the end of the scene, isn't it?

Not at all. The dramatic third part follows, in which Jesus asks one more time the famous, intrusive question: "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Simon Peter might have said, "I thought I had already answered your question. Lord, what was unclear?" But our reading says that instead he was distressed that Jesus asked him a third time.

"Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." (Gospel)

This squeamish sounding reply actually came from the truth-telling part of Simon Peter. It was not only a trust in Jesus' knowledge of him, but also a realization of the truth presented by his own innermost core. Peter was at core a believer and a lover of Jesus.

This is why Jesus said to him finally, "Feed my sheep," and why Peter could become such a promoter of the faith.
